

Respect

Young Players Code of Conduct

We all have a responsibility to promote high standards of behavior in the game.

As a player, you have a big part to play.

That's why BSC is asking every player to follow a Respect Code of Conduct.

When playing soccer, I will:

- Know the Laws of the Game of soccer and the rules of the league;
- Wish my opponents good luck, and welcome all visitors on behalf of the club;
- Take responsibility for my sportsmanship and conduct. Show respect and courtesy to coaches, spectators, teammates, and opponents at all times. I will not retaliate when fouled. Displays of temper will not be tolerated;
- Avoid overly-aggressive play and never play the game in a way that might cause injury to myself or my opponent;
- Strive to understand the game, become a strong athlete, learn teamwork, and display exemplary sportsmanship. The referees, players and coaches on the other team are not the enemy; they are fellow participants who make the sport possible. Without them, there would be no contest;
- Respect the referees by being courteous and maintaining control of my emotions throughout the game. Refrain from making comments or gestures about their decisions during play;
- Shake hands with my opponents and the referees after the match;
- Remember that this is a game to be enjoyed by all who participate. Be humble and gracious in victory, but proud and courteous in defeat.

I understand that if I do not follow the Code, any of the following actions may be taken by BSC:

I may:

- Be required to apologize to my teammates, the other team, or referee
- Be dropped or substituted
- Be suspended from training
- Be required to leave the club
